

MORE EXPERT TESTIMONY IN THE BROUWER MURDER CASE

Physician Who Signed Death Certificate, Most Important Witness at Third Day's Trial—Effort to Introduce a Mysterious Woman in the Case Ruled Out by the Court—Nurse Given Severe Cross-Examination.

Toms River, N. J., Oct. 10.—Dr. H. H. Cate, who issued the death certificate after the demise of Carrie Hyer Brouwer, was the chief witness this afternoon at the trial here of Dr. Frank Brouwer, for the murder of his wife. Dr. Cate is the strongest of the witnesses for the prosecution, and, on his testimony, it is expected, hinges the fate of the accused physician. The physician testified that he had been called to the Brouwer house to attend Mrs. Brouwer; that she appeared well on his first visit, but immediately after he saw her she went into convulsions. He stated that the accused had told him that his wife was suffering from Bright's disease. According to the witness the patient rapidly grew worse until she died and she did not respond to the usual remedies in such cases. Dr. Cate, referring to the information that Dr. Brouwer had imparted to him that Bright's disease was the cause of Mrs. Brouwer's death, said:

"Upon that information, which I received solely from Dr. Brouwer, and coupled with some symptoms apparently displayed by Mrs. Brouwer, I signed the death certificate giving that as the cause of death."

NURSES TESTIFY.
The testimony offered by two of the nurses who were with Mrs. Brouwer in her final illness was regarded as damaging to the prisoner's chances. These nurses rehearsed their suspicions when Brouwer prepared the medicine for his wife, and one of them, Miss May T. Lippincott, declared she threw a concoction fixed up by him away rather than administer it to the patient. Miss Una Dudley, the second nurse in the case, had a disagreeable experience at the hands of Mr. Wilson, counsel for the defense, but she told a straightforward story. Her attempt to rehearse the scene in the Brouwer homestead, when the doctor and his wife were discussing another woman, quarreling over his friendship for her, it has been alleged, was cut short by the court, who refused to admit testimony along this line. It was during the direct examination of Miss Dudley, after she testified that she was a guest at the Brouwer house before she went there as a nurse, and heard a conversation between the prisoner and his wife about another woman, that the prosecution sought to get this conversation on the record to establish a motive. The defense fought stubbornly against it, and the judge finally sustained them. This is considered a decided victory for the defense.

NERVES BECAME UNSTRUNG.
On cross examination witness admitted that after Mrs. Brouwer had the first convulsion her nerves became unstrung. She said that while not suspecting the defendant of poisoning his wife, she felt that something was wrong.

"If you didn't think the doctor was trying to kill his wife, why did you stop administering medicines prepared by him?" she was asked.

"I thought he was trying to prolong her illness," was the reply.
Miss Alice Horlock, the much talked-about nurse, who was present when Mrs. Brouwer died, testified that Dr. Brouwer was the night nurse in charge the Saturday and Sunday nights preceding Mrs. Brouwer's death. The witness described the death of the accused's wife and said that Mrs. Brouwer screamed for two hours before her death for somebody to "help her."

TAFT TO SAIL

From Havana Next Saturday, Accompanied by Funston—Two New Cases of Yellow Fever

Havana, Oct. 10.—Secretary of War Taft, Assistant Secretary of State Bacon, together with their wives and General Funston, will leave Havana on Saturday next aboard the U. S. battleship Louisiana, en route to Washington. In an interview on the reason for Gen. Funston's return with the party, Mr. Taft said:

"General Funston was summoned on a hurry call from the Pacific coast, on account of his long experience in Cuba and his knowledge of the country and the people. We expected that this would prove of the greatest value to us and it has proved so, especially in the matter of securing the surrender of arms by the revolutionists. Gen. Funston was, however, only summoned to take charge of the situation until General Bell could arrive. His labors are now finished and he is ready to return to his post."

Two new cases of yellow fever were reported at Cruces today. The officials do not regard the situation as serious and have no fears that an epidemic will result.

MORE CRAFT

This Time It Is Charged That Justices and Police Magistrates Have Robbed School Fund.

Chicago, Oct. 10.—Charges that Cook county justices of the peace and police magistrates have robbed the school fund of at least $500,000 in the last decade, are to be investigated by the county commissioners. From the 120 justices and 44 police magistrates an average of but $5000 annually has been received in fees, although their courts have been crowded day and night. The commissioners intimate that immense sums have been illegally withheld and that still more, in fines and fees, has been remitted on account of political pull.

The offices of the justices and magistrates are to be abolished December 1, in favor of municipal courts. Before settlement is made with the retiring officials, County Superintendent of Schools Nightingale has demanded an accounting. Some of the justices in the suburbs are so hard to find that references to their bonds is necessary to discover the location of their offices.

PORTO RICO, TERRITORY

New York, Oct. 10.—Judge Hough today practically admitted Porto Rico as a territory of the United States, when he refused to grant a writ of extradition against Abraham Copel, formerly a resident of Porto Rico, and under charges of embezzlement and misrepresentation. Copel is an American citizen, who four years ago went to Porto Rico and then started in business as a general salesman. In the opinion handed down the justice said that Porto Rican territory is practically the same as any state or territory within the dominion of the United States, and therefore no extradition proceedings would avail.

CHARGED WITH THEFT OF MILLION DOLLARS

Manuel Silveira, Head of the Havana Branch of J. M. Ceballo & Co.'s New York Banking House, Has Disappeared—Steamed Away From Cuba With Money on Boat—Banking House, Owing to Defalcation, Obligated to Assign.

New York, Oct. 10.—Somewhere on the high seas, it is alleged, is a steam yacht belonging to the firm of J. M. Ceballos and company of this city, which made a general assignment today for the benefit of its creditors. No bolder theft was ever planned or carried out than that accomplished by Manuel Silveira, head of the Ceballos branch in Havana, if the story of the attorney for the firm is to be believed.

On Tuesday, October 2, Silveira left Havana in the Carmelina, saying he was going to New York for a vacation of several months. He has not been heard from since, and there can be no doubt, if the report of the firm's lawyers is to be credited, that he is now steering away from this city as fast as steam can take him. With him are his wife and children and the $1,000,000 in specie and securities, which he has in trust for the Wall street firm. The police in every part of the world have been notified to be on the watch for the Carmelina and it is almost certain that his whereabouts will be learned before many days have passed. William V. Rowe, of the law firm of Sullivan and Cromwell, is acting as assignee to the wrecked concern. Tonight the attorney issued the following statement:

BANKERS ASSIGN.

J. M. Ceballos and company, bankers of New York and Havana, have today made a general assignment for their creditors to William V. Rowe, of the law firm of Sullivan and Cromwell, with William Nelson Cromwell as counsel to the assignee. The suspension is stated by the firm to be due to the defalcation of Manuel Silveira, of Silveira and company, bankers and merchants of Havana, who for several years have represented the business of Ceballos and company. His deficiency amounts to nearly one million dollars in money and other property. Silveira departed from Havana Tuesday, the second inst., in one of his own steamers, named the Carmelina, with New York as the ostensible destination. In local publications he announced his intention of going to New York for a vacation of several months, and in letters and cables to Mr. Ceballos, he declared his purpose of coming to New York to personally present his accounts to the firm and deliver the balances in hand. He was expected, in due course, to reach New York on Monday of this week, but failed.

ed to appear, and it has just developed by cable from Havana, that instead of departing for New York, he had left on his own ship for parts unknown, accompanied by his wife and children. Every effort is being made to locate the absconder.

"Silveira and company was one of the largest and best known firms in Havana; were the largest importers of cattle in Cuba, and were reputed especially to have made a large fortune immediately after the war."

Mr. Rowe, the assignee, immediately took charge of the business. Mr. William Nelson Cromwell, counsel for the assignee, stated:

HAD NO WARNING.

"Messrs Ceballos and company, having no premonition of this conduct of their agent, and confronted with this large loss and the deprivation of their current resources, I have, in this emergency, deemed it just to all having relations with them that they should make a general assignment without preference, in order to insure equality to all, and opportunity for examination of their affairs in connection with these unexpected and amazing developments. Under the extraordinary conditions mentioned and the suddenness of the disaster which has fallen upon the firm of Ceballos and company, it is impracticable at the moment to make an intelligent statement of the assets and liabilities. In a general way the liabilities are between $3,000,000 and $4,000,000." The house of J. M. Ceballos and company was established over 50 years ago, and has high connections in Spain, Spanish America and European centers. The firm, in connection with its American clientele, has devoted much of its capital to the development of important railroads, sugar plantations and other enterprises on the island, besides having large interests in this country, and steamship connections between here and Spain and other ports. The assets are of a very substantial character, but, from hasty examination, it is manifest to me that they will require careful handling. The accountants are at work and we will be able within a few days to make a fuller statement."

Mr. Ceballos resides at Bay Shore, Suffolk county, this state; Mr. Fiske lives at West Hampton, Suffolk county, this state, and Mr. Wilson resides at Plainfield, N. J.

The firm is a very large and old one.

AMERICA THE GREATEST
WHITE SLAVE MARKET

In the World According to Free Speech Leaguer, "Sixty Per Cent of Men Ugly to Marry."

Chicago, Oct. 10.—"America is the greatest white slave market in the world,"

"Sixty per cent of the men who marry are unfit to enter the marital state." "An organized international society exists for the importation and exportation of girls for the white slave traffic."

These were a few among the startling statements by speakers today at the National Purity conference here. To Anthony Comstock himself a part of the existing evils was attributed by Attorney Theodore Schroeder.

der of the Free Speech league, in an address before the conference. By the mug of proper discussion "of the psychology of sex," Mr. Schroeder argued, incalculable harm had been done.

"Only in the field of thought," he said, "do we assume that ignorance is virtue and enlightenment a crime. Science and the Bible are in harmony in declaring that 'to the pure all things are pure.'"

Mr. Comstock was expected to answer Attorney Schroeder's talk, but was unable to leave New York.

FOR SELLING WATERED MILK

Jacob Isler Was Fined $50 and Costs by Mayor Turnbull—Sanitary Officer Thompson Takes Notice.

Jacob Isler, living in the southwest end of Canton pleaded guilty to a charge brought against him by Sanitary Policeman Thompson, of furnishing adulterated milk to the Sanitary Milk Co., and was given a fine of $50 and costs by Mayor Turnbull.

The Sanitary company has been taking his whole supply for about four months, and it was considered first class until a month ago when Manager John Schubach noticed that the milk was not up to the standard.

Three weeks ago Schubach took samples from the cans in Isler's presence, and on testing them, found that they contained a large percentage of water. He, however, said nothing, and kept testing the milk secretly each day. For five days the milk was excellent, but after that Isler evidently concluded that nothing irregular had been discovered and the milk was again found adulterated.

Sanitary Policeman Thompson was notified and last Friday he took samples from four 10-gallon cans in Isler's presence which he sent to Chemist Charles F. Chapman to analyze. The four samples were found to contain 3.2 per cent, 3.1 per cent, 2.3 per cent and one only 1.2 per cent of butter fat. As the average per cent of butter fat is 4 per cent it shows that one of the samples was about three-fourths water.

As soon as Mr. Chapman's report was received, charges were filed and Isler was arrested by Detective Ryan. It was also noticed that the morning's supply was greatly superior to the evening's which is accounted for by the presence of Isler's family in the morning who knew nothing of the affair.

The ordinance against adulterating milk is severe, and although a $50 fine seems high it is the minimum amount for the first offense.

Hamilton, N. Y., Oct. 10.—Colgate defeated Hobart in football here today by a score of 29 to 0. The game was fast but marked by much off side playing. It was played in a pouring rain and on a muddy field. Whelan, Colgate's left halfback, was the hero of the game.
